Chesapeake Square Pawn will not be responsible for damages or any kind to treated or filled diamonds. Disclosure is the sole responsibility of the customer.

Chesapeake Square Pawn will not be responsible for damage to diamonds or gemstones sent for removal from old mountings, when hidden chips or flaws are discovered under prongs or bezels.

If colored gemstones are chipped or broken during resetting or tightening due to anything other than malpractice, Chesapeake Square Pawn will not be responsible and will reserve the right to decide the same.

All turquoise, coral, shell (including cameo), opal, emerald, foreign (including silver Native American jewelry), and enamel jewelry will be worked on at an automatic customer's risk.

Any ring exceeding two sizes in either direction that by design should not be attempted, will incur additional charges for any resetting of stones, repairing any structural damage, or replacement of stones that becomes necessary.
